Historic AGM as The Kennel Club maps out future plans

Chairman, Tony Allcock OBE, opened the AGM by reflecting on the achievements of the past year – which have included the Buckingham Palace Garden party; a hugely well attended and viewed Crufts 2023 and the granting of the esteemed Royal Prefix.

The Chairman's opening address spoke of the importance of being true to the Club's core and historic values – which includes supporting and enabling the joy that comes from participating in dog activities and ensuring that all we do is underpinned by a commitment to protect and promote the wellbeing of dogs – values which are reflected in the strategic aims that were formulated last year.

However, evolution and change – underpinned by extensive research and engagement – were the overriding themes throughout the remainder of the AGM and members were thanked for sharing their invaluable knowledge in the members and activities surveys, whose insights are helping to inform the path ahead. These surveys have been part of a host of communication and engagement initiatives, which also included an enhanced Members' lounge at Crufts, a members' roadshow at major dog shows and a new monthly newsletter.

Addresses from Chief Executive, Mark Beazley; Interim Chief Finance Officer, Tom Kelman and Interim Strategy and Implementation Executive, Mark Bermingham, underlined the importance and the need for a new direction, in a changing world. Amongst the challenges outlined was the 27 per cent decline in dog activities and the perceptions held about The Kennel Club.

“...the Board and the Executive team will continue to focus on developing ways for The Kennel Club to diversify and strengthen other income streams...”

The increasing financial pressures, both long and short term – including the 40-year high inflation rates and the fall in registrations to pre-pandemic levels – were also highlighted, as a result an increase of £3 registration and transfer fees was proposed, after a five year freeze and this was approved by a significant majority.

Mark Beazley, Kennel Club Chief Executive said: “This price increase will substantially improve The Kennel Club's financial resilience for the future. Registrations prices have remained fixed for five years which means, quite simply, that we have been spending more than we are bringing in and we may have to fall back on our reserves to fund our day-to-day costs, money that should be reserved for investment in major step changes and security for the future. This is not a sustainable situation and thank our members for the support it has given to put us on a secure financial footing.

“Alongside this the Board and the Executive team will continue to focus on developing ways for The Kennel Club to diversify and strengthen other income streams as part of progressing and implementing strategy – an opportunity I am excited and energised by.”

Proposals to improve the longer term financial footing of The Kennel Club included making better use of The Kennel Club's assets, including its property assets. One such avenue would be to increase the possible returns – through ecological development – of the Emblehope estate and to carry out the investigations needed to realise the potential of the estate and understand its market value – with the aim of bringing back any proposals for the Members to consider, when available. Optimisation of the Clarges Street building was also discussed, including the letting of two floors of the building and changing the configuration of the offices on the second floor. Both the changes to the Clarges Street offices and the investigations into the Emblehope estate were approved.

Members also heard about the plans being set out in the first wave of business cases, for the July Kennel Club board meeting, that will both improve what The Kennel Club does and how it does it, with the aim of making the business more inclusive, agile, relevant and financially viable.

Amongst the proposals outlined was the need to evolve the registrations model – which is The Kennel Club's primary source of income – to ensure that it is more inclusive but that it is also structured to help improve the welfare of dogs and the standards of breeding. Additionally, Frank Kane gave a report about the work of the Non Breed Standards Working Party, which held 25 meetings between November 2021 and January 2023, and both the 'quick fix' recommendations and the mid to long term recommendations that will need Board approval before being included in the strategic review, were outlined.

Training – as the most useful thing that The Kennel Club can signpost owners to after they have obtained a dog and as a potential springboard into future further activities – was highlighted as another area that needs to be strengthened and better aligned. Proposals included improving the quality of the relationship and engagement with local training clubs and the support offered – through simplified processes and better CPD.

Membership was also discussed with the need to explore the ways we can involve more likeminded people from the World of Dogs in The Kennel Club, for example through other subscription options and benefits such as potential Kennel Club social membership, whilst protecting and enhancing the experience of existing members.

Alongside these proposals were plans to change how The Kennel Club operates – which lies at the heart of the Governance and Organisational Development work that is already underway – so that interactions with The Kennel Club are positive and more intuitive and agile. It was outlined that although there has been a vast turnaround in customer experience with The Kennel Club, the ambition is not just for a 'functional' but an 'enhanced' experience, so that people can 'move seamlessly' through what should be not just a single interaction, but potentially a dog owning lifetime experience with The Kennel Club.

The AGM heard about the continued pace in the months ahead as the first wave of business plans – which set out proposed changes and what will be needed to deliver them, alongside the costs, benefits and risks – will be taken to the July and September boards, and an SGM in October for any changes that require member approval. These steps follow on from the significant raft of work in the past 12 months including the implantation of corporate and departmental plans across the organization; the introduction of performance metrics; the building of change management capabilities and the continued gathering of insights and data to ensure that all changes are built on a solid foundation.

Mark Beazley closed the AGM on a note of thanks to Kennel Club staff, directors and members and by highlighting the continued need for collaboration as the skills and knowledge of everybody are lent on to jointly craft the delivery of the future plans, in the months and years ahead. The full report of the AGM will be included in the August issue of the Kennel Club Journal which will be available on The Kennel Club website.

Alongside these proposals were plans to change how The Kennel Club operates - so that interactions are positive and more intuitive and agile

At the AGM the following ten members were elected to the Board of Directors for a three year term:

Mr PR Eardley, Mr MW James, Mr P Harding, Mr RIH Heathcote, Mr S Payne, Mrs M Reynolds, Mrs A Scutcher, Mr G Partridge - and for a one year term Mr J Bailey and Mrs A White.

Other business conducted at the AGM included the election of seven Honorary Life Members of The Kennel Club as follows:

- Mr BM Marshall
- Mr RD Rout
- Mr RAW Searle
- Mr GA Hill
- Mr F Kane
- Miss L Pogodzinski
- Mr AW Young

The following four Vice Presidents of The Kennel Club were re-elected:

Exemption from benching trial for General and Group Championship shows

The Kennel Club is reminding exhibitors that the requirement for benching for General and Group Championship dog shows has been relaxed for a two-year trial period, which came into effect on 1 January 2023, following the December Board meeting.

Show societies may apply for exemption from benching with each application being considered on a case-by-case basis, and The Kennel Club, via the Show Executive Committee will be monitoring the impact on shows with Field Officers assigned to report on those shows for which exemption from benching is granted.

Scottish Kennel Club (May) and Southern Counties Canine Association (June) are the first Championship shows who have held shows in an 'unbenched' capacity.

The Kennel Club wishes to reiterate that exhibitors must comply with all reasonable requests from the show management especially regarding any potential safety issues, and must be aware of their surroundings at all times.

A number of factors have been identified and highlighted to societies as requiring additional consideration should a show take place without benching. While it is the responsibility of the society to ensure relevant factors have been taken into consideration it is paramount that exhibitors are aware of the following points: Regulation F(1)3.d which states:

• "Gangways.

(1) The width of unobstructed gangway shall not be less than 6 ft (1.85 m) when there are rings and/or benches on either side.

(2) The width of unobstructed gangway shall not be less than 3 ft (0.92 m) when there is a ring or benches on one side only."

- Potential hazards i.e., gazebo rope, including the distance between temporary structures (including ropes) and show rings.
- Dogs must be kept under control at all times.
- No cooking equipment to be used except as authorised by the show management e.g., Catering vans.
- All gazebos must be well anchored.
- All dogs must be identifiable at all times. As there will be no numbers on benches exhibitors may need crate tags in order for dogs in crates to be identifiable.

Exhibitors are reminded to be mindful of their surroundings

- Societies must make schedules clear in terms of what arrangements have been made should a show be exempt from benching, including notice of wet weather arrangements. Societies can apply for exemption after their schedule has been published, exemption may then be considered as an amendment to the schedule, although it is recommended that requests are submitted as early as possible.

In addition, exhibitors are reminded to be mindful of their surroundings at all shows whether benching is utilised or not.

Vulnerable British and Irish Breeds competition returns in 2023

Heats for the Vulnerable British and Irish Breeds competition have started to take place and as in previous years will culminate in a grand final at Crufts 2024.

To raise awareness of vulnerable British and Irish breeds, and to recognise those people who are dedicated to their survival and prosperity, The Kennel Club created the competition in 2015. In 2023, 34 breeds fall into this category, having generated 300 or fewer puppy registrations in the UK in the previous year.

The competition has already proved very popular and at Crufts 2023, Tracy Irving's four-year-old Welsh Corgi Cardigan Libby (Ch Pi Et Ra of Trefilio Borntobe Avalanche (JW) (Imp Hun)), from Bolton won the grand final, judged by Mrs Patsy Hollings.

Following a similar format to the one used in 2022, only the Best of Breed winners at designated championship shows this year (two of which have already taken place) will qualify for the final.

The competition is open to all vulnerable British and Irish breeds competing at the following championship shows:

- Hound Association
- National Working and Pastoral Breeds society
- National Gundog Association
- United Kingdom Toy Dog society
- National Terrier Club

Dogs of breeds which are on The Kennel Club's Vulnerable British and Irish breeds list who win Best of Breed at the above shows will qualify for the competition and will be invited to compete in the grand final at Crufts 2024. In cases where the Best of Breed winner is unable to compete in the final, the Best Opposite Sex winner will be invited.

Tom Mather, Crufts Chairman said: "The Vulnerable British and Irish Breeds competition final is a very important event at Crufts. It is a fantastic way to highlight the plight of these breeds and promote them as the wonderful dogs they are."

"Crufts is the perfect chance to show the world just how special these vulnerable breeds really are"

"It is important that the show societies work with breed clubs of vulnerable British and Irish breeds so that these clubs can inspire their membership to enter the classes and take part in the competition. Crufts is a great showcase for pedigree dogs and the perfect chance to show the world just how special these vulnerable breeds really are."

To find out more about the competition and vulnerable breeds, please visit thekennelclub.org.uk/vulnerablebreeds. All Crufts 2024 finalists will be contacted by The Kennel Club in December 2023.

Youngsters and their dogs prepare to pitch up in Rutland

Young dog lovers and their four-legged-friends are preparing for a fun-filled summer in Rutland, as the annual Young Kennel Club (YKC) Summer Camp returns to Rutland Showground, for a third consecutive year.

Promising an action-packed week of activities, training and entertainment for both youngsters and their dogs, the YKC Summer Camp will kick off on Sunday 30 July until Friday 4 August and will see over 70 young dog enthusiasts descend on the showground, with their canine companions in tow.

The Young Kennel Club has been running since 1985, with the first Summer Camp taking place in 1992, and 2021 saw the Camp take up residence at the showground for the first time. This year, the YKC will be welcoming back children and teenagers between the ages of seven and sixteen, and with festival season in full swing, the week provides a perfect opportunity for them to enjoy a holiday with their dogs, whilst also keeping active, joining in with social events and taking part in plenty of training activities with their four-legged friends.

“YKC Summer Camp provides our young members with the chance to develop their skills in the training and care of dogs”

The week will include the opportunity to brush up on skills across a range of dog-focused disciplines, including agility, hoops, scent work, obedience and heelwork to music, plus an educational programme that will provide information about all things canine – from dog grooming and care, to The Kennel Club Good Citizen Dog Training scheme, as well as a packed evening schedule for the humans, with a sports night, talent night, quiz night and many more.

Senior YKC members will be on hand as team leaders, which not only provides them with the invaluable developmental opportunity to put their leadership skills into practice, the younger members also benefit from being mentored by older members, who have been involved with the YKC for many years.

YKC members must have a parent or guardian on-site at all times, but all the family are welcome to enjoy the fun, with onsite activities including daily bingo, afternoon tea, camp fun run and many more.

Helen Kerfoot, spokesperson for the Young Kennel Club said: “YKC Summer Camp is a real highlight of the summer, and provides our young members with the chance to not only develop their skills in the training and care of dogs, but to also have fun with their friends.

“Equipping youngsters with the knowledge and awareness of what it means to be a responsible dog owner is so important, especially at a young age, and Camp will offer not only that, but also opportunities to socialise, train and compete, with a varied week of fun and games. The skills, knowledge and friendships that are created at Camp last a lifetime and are so important at encouraging the next generation into the wonderful world of dogs.”

Parents of young dog lovers who may be interested in becoming a member of the Young Kennel Club should visit ykc.org.uk for more information.

Dog reunited with owners after eight month search

As missing family dog dumped 50 miles from home is reunited with owners after eight month search, UK's largest lost and found pet database urges more owners to check their details this National Microchipping Month.

Jazz, a Cocker Spaniel, has been reunited with her owners thanks to her microchip, having been found dumped in an ambulance over 50 miles from her home.

Jazz disappeared from her family home in Powys, Wales, last year. Her devastated owner, Emma Darling, 45, and her family, were determined to find Jazz. Emma contacted Petlog, who Jazz's microchipped is recorded with, and her vets to alert them. She also put up posters, shared on social media and looked every day for Jazz for months – but heard nothing.

Then, out of the blue, eight months later, a vet's practice in Wolverhampton – over 50 miles from Powys – called Emma, after a black Cocker Spaniel had been handed into them by an ambulance worker, who had discovered a dog in the back of the ambulance out on shift. They scanned her microchip, which confirmed it was Jazz and recorded to Emma's up-to-date contact details. So Jazz was finally reunited with Emma and her family.

Emma commented: "Jazz just disappeared that day. At first we thought she had got out, but she had never done that before. The next day we started to think maybe she had been stolen as she hadn't come back.

"The first three months I literally trawled missing/stolen dog social media groups and selling sites, and shared the dog lost poster anywhere and everywhere. We were so worried about how she was being treated, whether she was being fed and if she had a dry, warm place when it was cold.

"I was determined to find Jazz. I couldn't eat and felt like my head was about to explode every day. Some days I just cried. My two daughters were so upset, it was absolutely heart-breaking. We felt so sad for so long.

"When my phone rang that day... Never in a million years did I think the vet was going to tell me they had Jazz! They had scanned Jazz and been able to contact me because of her microchip.

"It turns out Jazz had been dumped in an ambulance while the crew were tending to patient. They heard a noise in the back and went to investigate, and there was Jazz.

"Alex who works for the ambulance service and found Jazz in the vehicle really was an angel! That night, when she had a break from her shift, she took Jazz home and bathed her and looked after her all night until the vets opened the next day. Jazz was wet and tired, with algae on her coat, so Alex thinks she may have been dumped in the nearby canal.

"Jazz was quieter and tired the first day we got her home, but she's been back to herself ever since. I honestly can't believe what happened. It took me a while to not cry every time I mentioned Alex when I told Jazz's story – she truly is an angel, I will always be so grateful to her.

"We didn't realise – and most people don't either – about how many dogs go missing or are stolen, and the reality of the situation, until we were living it. My advice to other owners would be to check your microchip details and make sure they're up to date, just in case the worst happens and to keep your pet safe."

This month marks National Microchipping Month, organised by Petlog, the UK's largest lost and found pet database, to encourage owners to microchip their pets and ensure their details are up-to-date, and keep more of the UK's much-loved pets safe.

Bill Lambert, spokesperson for Petlog, which is run by The Kennel Club, commented: "While Jazz and Emma's story had a happy ending, so many others end terribly with devastating repercussions. No one ever expects it to happen, but during this year's National Microchipping Month, we are urging all owners to microchip their pets and check that their details are completely up-to-date, so that they have the very best chance of being reunited with their four-legged family member."

A microchip is the size of a grain of rice which is inserted under the skin at the back of an animal's neck. It permanently identifies pets and connects them with an owner's contact details, which are held on a database like Petlog, enabling vets, local authorities and animal charities to scan the chip, match it to the owner's details and reunite lost and found pets if the worst happens. Of course, microchipping can only work effectively if an owner's contact details are up to date with a database.

Currently, it's a legal requirement for dogs to be microchipped in England, Northern Ireland, Wales and Scotland. The UK Government has also recently announced that microchipping is set to become compulsory for cats in England next summer.

Further expert advice and tips to keep pets safe this National Microchipping Month can be found at petlog.org.uk

New DNA testing scheme for Leonbergers

The Kennel Club has approved a new official DNA test reporting scheme for Laryngeal paralysis and polyneuropathy (LPPN3) for Leonbergers, following consultation with the breed's health co-ordinator on behalf of the breed clubs.

Laryngeal paralysis and polyneuropathy is an inherited condition that can affect a dog's nerves, causing problems with swallowing, breathing and walking. There are different genetic mutations which can cause this disease, and the LPPN3 test identifies whether a dog carries one of them.

Affected dogs may have difficulty breathing, may make strange noises when breathing (noisy breathing, wheezing or sounding hoarse when barking), problems swallowing (gagging) and difficulty walking (high stepping, finding it difficult to walk in a straight line or tripping over). Dogs in some breeds (such as Leonbergers) may be affected at a young age (2-3 years old), while other breeds may be affected later on in life.

The disease is described as autosomal-recessive. This means that a dog must inherit two copies of an abnormal gene (one from its mother and one from its father) before its health is affected.

Tested dogs will be recorded on The Kennel Club systems as either:

CLEAR

The dog does not have any copies of the abnormal gene associated with the disease. The dog is highly unlikely to be clinically affected and will only pass on a normal copy of the gene to a puppy.

CARRIER

The dog has one copy of the normal gene and one copy of the abnormal gene associated with the disease. The dog is highly unlikely to be clinically affected, but may pass one copy of the normal gene, or one copy of the abnormal gene on to a puppy.

AFFECTED

The dog has two copies of the abnormal gene associated with the disease. The dog will likely be clinically affected by the disorder and will pass one copy of the abnormal gene on to any potential offspring.

registered name or registered number on any DNA certificates. Any test results issued after that date that do not carry these identifying features will not be accepted.

- The Kennel Club has a set of criteria that we request DNA testing laboratories to meet to enable us to record their results, helping to maintain and protect the integrity of results that appear on a dog's records. We have updated the list of laboratories that we accept results from and strongly advise that customers ensure their chosen laboratory is included on our revised list - thekennelclub.org.uk/approvedlabs - if they wish the Kennel Club to record and publish the results. Results from laboratories not included on this list will not be recorded.

To find out which laboratories the Kennel Club is able to record results from for this test, and which labs will send results direct to the Kennel Club, please refer to our page about LPPN3 at thekennelclub.org.uk/LPPN3.

Please note that these listings are not necessarily comprehensive and other labs may offer the tests. To find out which DNA tests are relevant to your breed, visit thekennelclub.org.uk/breeds.

The Kennel Club constantly reviews DNA testing schemes in conjunction with breed clubs to ensure that breeders are supported with resources which help them to make responsible breeding decisions. The Kennel Club works alongside breed clubs and breed health coordinators in a collaborative effort to improve the health of pedigree dogs and is happy to consider a club's request to add a new DNA test to its lists. A formal request from the breed's health coordinator or a majority request from the breed clubs is normally required to do this.

Test results will be added to the dog's registration details which will trigger the publication of the result in the next available Breed Records Supplement and also on the Health Test Results Finder on The Kennel Club website.

Results for dogs already tested can also be recorded, but owners will need to submit copies of the DNA certificates themselves. DNA test certificates should be scanned and emailed to Health results (The Kennel Club)

Owners are reminded that:

- from August 2018, it is mandatory that the dog's microchip (or tattoo) is recorded along with either the dog's

For the Members

Communication; past, present and future

Over the past year, we have been listening to our members' feedback, making great strides in prioritising and improving the way we communicate with you.

Improving communications

The positive feedback we have received so far is a sign we are heading in the right direction: members specifically noted last year that they appreciated increased communication about our new strategy.

Good communication can increase engagement, boost morale and leads to greater loyalty. Good communication is, to put it simply, important for the future direction of our organisation. We know that in the past this hasn't been at its best, but we are proud of the changes we have made and are continually improving what we do and how we do it.

AGM communications

We made every effort to reach out to our members before and after the AGM; with monthly updates in the Journal, monthly members roundup emails sharing the top stories and updates from the month before. We also ran a series of virtual on-line Q&A sessions before the AGM. Themes that came through from the Q&A sessions focussed on the financial situation and how more income could be generated from the unused office space in the Clarges Street offices. Members also asked how we might improve our website and when we would start using the Royal prefix. Rightly, members mentioned that any name change must be put to members to decide firstly, and also to consider the costs of rebranding. We also had positive feedback on the lounges and a suggestion that we might make more noise around our successes! Duly noted and we will!

We were delighted that over 100 members attended the AGM in person and nearly 50 members joined on line. Together with those that had cast their proxy vote before, we were even more delighted that the resolutions for a small increase in registrations fees, the ability to review how we use our office space and look at the future of Emblehope - were approved by our members helping to generate more income for the last half of this year, next year and beyond. All of this is critical to ensure The Kennel Club continues to make a positive difference for dogs and their owners.

Getting out and about

And meeting our members face to face over the past few months has been a priority for us with over 600 guests taking up the opportunity to discuss the future direction at the new pop-up Members' Lounges at Birmingham National, Scottish Kennel Club and Bath Championship shows. The hot topic for those gatherings was the AGM and of course, many members also wished to express and share their memorable experiences of attending the Garden Party at Buckingham Palace.

These lounges enable face to face discussions between board members, staff, members and other dog lovers - showing we are committed to engaging with all and are listening to views on our short, medium and long term plans.

What's next in our communication plan?

We are planning more lounges with Windsor Championship show playing host to the next pop-up Members' Lounge, where we look forward to continuing our strategy discussions. We are also looking at which other events we can attend, taking geography and resources into account.

Over the summer, our communications will continue, we'll carry on talking to dog communities and members to hear their views on our plans and approaches, feeding that insight into the solutions we design, so that everyone has had an opportunity to be heard, ahead of the anticipated Special General Meeting in October.

Other matters that we will be looking at include;

- We'll begin to share the themes that are beginning to emerge from the wealth of data we gleaned from the Dog Activities survey we conducted at the start of this year.
 - We'll be able to provide some updates on our Governance and Organisational Development project – for example there are 45 committees with over 340 people on them. We need to ensure things are more transparent – so that we can make it easier to get things done – updates will form a key part of our communications over the summer.
 - There are a number of business cases being submitted to the Board throughout June and July, helping to give some detail to proposals for some of the improvements to consider. We'll be able to share more on this through the summer and in the run up to the SGM.
 - And we'll share the locations where our pop-up lounges will be appearing next!
- Until then, keep reading the Journal, look out for your members' roundup email, join the members Facebook page if you haven't already, and hopefully drop into a pop-up lounge near you, for a chat!

We were delighted that over 100 members attended the AGM in person

Find a puppy with the Assured Breeders scheme

Owners who buy from a Kennel Club assured breeder spend nearly 20% less in vet bills* compared to those who buy a dog elsewhere.

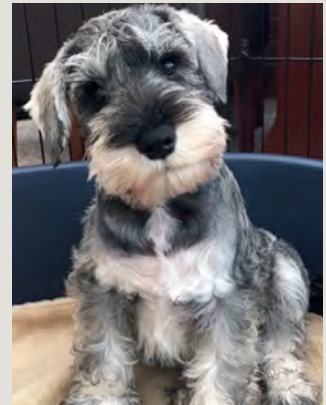

"Our dog is the light in our lives. Would always recommend a Kennel Club assured breeder."

"I love my dog because this little bundle of fluff is the best thing that ever happened to us."

"I love my dog because of the way he looks at me, his playful nature and his unconditional love!"

"I love my dog because she is my devoted best friend."

For a healthy, happy puppy always buy from a Kennel Club assured breeder and do your part to help put puppy farmers out of business.

KC File for July

FIELD OFFICER SHOW VISITS

The work that societies carry out to ensure that their own events are run to an excellent standard is commended by The Kennel Club. To help support, The Kennel Club throughout the year sends field officers to selected events with a view to help guide the societies.

Following these visits, reports are taken back to The Kennel Club and on occasion the office will award an excellent certificate to the society if it is felt appropriate.

Going forward, we are pleased to list all the societies who gained an excellent certificate for their event in the Journal and this will be backdated to include those shows in 2022 which will feature in this edition.

Next month's Journal will contain shows held in 2023 up to and including May 2023 and following that reports will be included monthly where appropriate.

The Kennel Club Accredited Instructors Scheme

The Kennel Club Accredited Instructors (KCAI) Scheme offers its members the opportunity to gain a nationally-recognised vocational accreditation based on a robust standard set by the Kennel Club. It is the first and only scheme for dog training instructors and behaviourists that has achieved programme accreditation from City & Guilds, a globally-recognised benchmark of quality.

This section of the Kennel Club Journal is dedicated to KCAI Scheme members. It provides information on the resources available to members, announcements on newly awarded Kennel Club Accredited Instructors, and KCAI Scheme news and updates.

For more information on the KCAI Scheme, please visit: www.kcai.org.uk

GUIDE TO ACCREDITATION (SELF ASSESSMENT)

Assessing your knowledge and skills as a dog training instructor is essential to developing and improving your performance.

This self-assessment guide will enable you to identify any gaps in their knowledge, skills and/or experience, to assist you in evaluating your readiness to apply for accreditation, prior to submitting an application.

Find out more about the KCAI Guide to Accreditation (self assessment) here.

PRACTICAL AND ORAL ASSESSMENT

- Have you completed all nine KCAI online assessments?
- Are you ready to apply for your practical assessment?

If the answer is yes, then visit the KCAI members area on the Kennel Club website to access the accreditation application and supporting criteria documentation.
